By letter dated December 16, 1947, the Washington Field Office furnished the Bureau with [redacted]

[redacted] which was obtained from Confidential Informant [redacted] in the Security Division has requested that a check be made with [redacted] to ascertain if they are in a position to read this communication and if they are to obtain a decrypt.

This would appear to be a matter which should clear through [redacted]. Consequently, attached is [redacted]. It is suggested that [redacted] inquire of [redacted] if [redacted] or the [redacted] can read the [redacted] identified only as [redacted] and if they can whether they will furnish us a decrypt of the message.
